"Box N Freight aims to provide thousands of employment opportunities to unemployed youth in the logistics sector"

Hyderabad (TSIT): Nimesh Koteja, the chairman of Box N Freight, has expressed his organization's goal to offer employment opportunities to thousands of unemployed young people within the logistics industry. During the company's employee meeting held at the Dasapalla Hotel in Jubilee Hills, the organization's brochure was unveiled by Telangana and AP Zonal

Head Vashishta Sastri and GM Venkat Naidu. Koteja emphasised the abundance of opportunities present in the logistics field, particularly for aspiring youth who want to venture into the business sector. He also noted that his company has deployed the latest technology to manage the industry efficiently. The organisation has already hired 250 unemployed people as associates within a year of operation and plans to expand employment opportunities to eight thousand individuals within another year.
